

PRIVACY NOTICE

Summary of how we (Market Harborough Basketball Club, hereafter referred to as MHBC) and Basketball England (BE) use your data:

- MHBC uses your personal data to manage and administer your/your child's membership and your/their involvement with its teams and club, and to keep in contact with you for these purposes.
- Some data is shared with Basketball England, who use the data to regulate, develop and manage the game. Data is not shared with anybody else for any other purposes.
- Where MHBC or BE rely on your consent, such as any consent we seek for email marketing, you can withdraw this consent at any time.
- Amongst the data we collect may be medical (including injury) information. We will hold this in line with the consent you have provided, detailed on the club application form, so that we can ensure we are aware of any medical condition and can provide the required support where appropriate.
- Where you work in a role within the game (e.g. coach), you may be required to undergo a Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) check using the service that BE provide through GB Group Online Disclosures. The result of this check will be input into your personal record on Basketball England's database system (where appropriate).

What does this policy cover?

This policy describes how MHBC (also referred to as "we" or "us") will make use of the data we handle in relation to our members and players, including our use of BE's database system.

It also describes your data protection rights, including a right to object to some of the processing which we carry out.

What information do we collect?

We collect and process personal data from you when you join and when we carry out annual renewals of membership. For club members under the age of 18, the details below will be collected from a parent/guardian relating to the child:

- your name
- your gender,
- your date of birth,
- your BE license number
- your home address, email address and phone number;

- your type of membership and involvement in particular teams, or any key role you may have been allocated, such as Chair, Safeguarding Lead, Membership Secretary etc.;
- any consents you have given us;
- your medical conditions or disability, where you provide this to us with your consent (or your parent's consent) to ensure we are aware of any support we may need to provide to you.

Some information will be generated as part of your involvement with us, in particular, data about your performance (via official score sheets required by all Leicester Basketball League (LBBL) & the Leicestershire & Rutland Basketball Association (LRBA) organisations), involvement in particular matches in match reports and details of any disciplinary issues or incidents you may be involved in on and off the pitch, such as within health and safety records.

What information do we receive from third parties?

Sometimes, we receive information about you from third parties. For example, for children, we may be given information by parents.

We may receive information relating to your existing registrations with other clubs or disciplinary history. Additionally, for certain role holders or those working with children, we may receive information from the Disclosure and Barring Service and BE on the status of any DBS check you have been required to take.

How do we use this information, and what is the legal basis for this use?

We process this personal data for the following purposes:

Registration, insurance, membership, safeguarding, communication

As required by us to conduct our business and pursue our legitimate interests, in particular:

- we will use your information to manage and administer your membership and your involvement with its teams and club, and to keep in contact with you for these purposes only;
- we will also use data to maintain records of our performances and history, including official match reports, score lines and team sheets;

Where you give us consent:

- we may handle medical or disability information you or a parent provides to us, to ensure we support you appropriately;
- on other occasions where we ask you for consent, we will use the data for the purpose which we explain at that time.

For purposes which are required by law:

- we maintain records such as health and safety records and accounting records to meet specific legal requirements;
- we ensure, where you will work with children, that you have undergone an appropriate DBS check – this is also carried out with your consent.
- where you hold a role at the Club requiring us to check your right to work, we may process information to meet our statutory duties;
- we may respond to requests by government or law enforcement authorities conducting an investigation.

How does Basketball England (BE) use any of my information?

BE provides an online database, but make its own use of the following information:

- your name;
- your gender;
- your date of birth;
- your Basketball England license number
- your home address, email address and phone number; and
- your type of membership and involvement in particular teams at the Club, or any key role you may have been allocated, such as Chair, Safeguarding Lead, Membership Secretary etc.

BE uses this information as follows:

As required by BE to conduct its business and pursue its legitimate interests, in particular:

- communicating with you or about you where necessary to administer basketball in England.
- administering and ensuring the eligibility of players, match officials and others involved in English basketball – this may involve the receipt of limited amounts of sensitive data in relation to disabled players, where they are registered for a disabled league or team, or in relation to anti-doping matters;
- maintaining records of the game as played in England, in particular, maintaining details of discipline, misconduct and safeguarding cases;
- maintaining statistics and conducting analysis on the make-up of basketball's participants;
- ensuring compliance with the current BE Rules and Regulations including those on the affiliation of clubs, local leagues, associations and other basketball bodies, and registration of players; and;
- communicating with you to ask for your opinion on Basketball England initiatives.

For purposes which are required by law:

- Basketball England will ensure, where you will work with children and where this is required, that you have undergone an appropriate DBS check – this is also carried out with your consent.
- Basketball England may respond to requests by government or law enforcement authorities conducting an investigation.

Withdrawing consent or otherwise objecting to direct marketing

Wherever we rely on your consent, you will always be able to withdraw that consent, although we may have other legal grounds for processing your data for other purposes, such as those set out above. In some cases, we are able to send you direct marketing without your consent, where we rely on our (Basketball England) legitimate interests. You have an absolute right to opt-out of direct marketing, or profiling we carry out for direct marketing, at any time. You can do this by following the instructions in the communication where this is an electronic message, or by contacting us using the details set out below in the "Meet the team" section on our (Basketball England) website.

Who will we share this data with, where and when?

In addition to sharing data with Basketball England, we will share your data with: Leicester Basketball League (LBBL) & the Leicestershire & Rutland Basketball Association (LRBA) solely for registration, membership and insurance purposes where appropriate.

Some limited information may be shared with other stakeholders in basketball, such as other clubs, associations, league organisers, so that they can maintain appropriate records and assist us in organising matches and administering the game.

Personal data may be shared with government authorities and/or law enforcement officials if required for the purposes above, if mandated by law or if required for the legal protection of our or Basketball England's legitimate interests in compliance with applicable laws.

Personal data will also be shared with third party service providers, who will process it on our behalf for the purposes identified above.

No information is sent outside the EEA by Market Harborough Basketball Club

Where information is transferred (by Basketball England) outside the EEA, and where this is to a stakeholder or vendor in a country that is not subject to an adequacy decision by the EU Commission, data is adequately protected by EU Commission approved standard contractual clauses, an appropriate Privacy Shield certification or a vendor's Processor Binding Corporate Rules.

What rights do I have?

You have the right to ask us for a copy of your personal data; to correct, delete or restrict (stop any active) processing of your personal data; and to obtain the personal data you provide to us for a contract or with your consent in a structured, machine readable format.

In addition, you can object to the processing of your personal data in some circumstances (in particular, where we don't have to process the data to meet a contractual or other legal requirement, or where we are using the data for direct marketing).

These rights may be limited, for example if fulfilling your request would reveal personal data about another person, or if you ask us to delete information which we are required by law to keep or have compelling legitimate interests in keeping.

You have the same rights for data held by Basketball England for its own purposes.

To exercise any of these rights, you can get in touch with us or, as appropriate, Basketball England or its data protection officer. If you have unresolved concerns, you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.

Much of the information listed above must be provided on a mandatory basis so that we can make the appropriate legal checks and register you as required by Basketball England Rules and Regulations. We will inform you which information is mandatory when it is collected. Some information is optional, particularly information such as your medical information. If this is not provided, we may not be able to provide you with appropriate assistance, services or support.

How do I get in touch with you or Basketball England?

We hope that we can satisfy queries you may have about the way we process your data. If you have any concerns about how we process your data, you can get in touch at mhbcgeneral@outlook.com or by writing to Market Harborough Basketball Club, c/o 26 Clarence Street, Market Harborough, LEICS, LE16 7NE.

If you have any concerns about how Basketball England process your data, you can get in touch at info@basketballengland.co.uk or by writing to Basketball England, National Squash Centre, Etihad Campus, Gate 13, Rowsley Street, M11 3FF.

How long will you retain my data?

We process your data for as long as you are an active member and for a maximum of one month after this.

We will retain information held to maintain statutory records in line with appropriate statutory requirements or guidance.

Basketball England will maintain records of individuals who have registered on their database, records of DBS checks and the resulting outcomes and other disciplinary matters for such period as is set out in Basketball England's privacy notice to be set out on www.basketballengland.co.uk

Records of your involvement in a particular match, on team sheets, on results pages or in match reports may be held indefinitely both by us and Basketball England in order to maintain a record of the game.
